A Guide to Consigning or Selling Your Art

STEP 1

Review our list of Wanted Artists

We are seeking original works of art (no lithographs or prints*) by established artists who have received critical acclaim in Canadian art history, and have a proven track record of sales. We deal in Canadian art ONLY.

* We do buy & sell David Blackwood etchings and Sampson-Matthews Ltd. silkscreens

STEP 2

Provide us with key information & photos

- Name of Artist & Artwork
- Dimensions of Artwork with & without Frame
- Medium of Artwork (Oil, Watercolour, Acrylic, etc.)
- Date of Artwork (if known)
- Condition of Artwork
- Whether there are gallery, exhibition or artist labels
- High-resolution Photos of Artwork, Artist Signature, Labels, Frame

STEP 3

We'll provide a free valuation of your Artwork

We provide an appraisal based on the current Canadian art market, and recommend a price to list your artwork for sale as a consignment with us. If you wish to sell your artwork outright, we may make you a purchase offer.

STEP 4

Consigning an Artwork

- We will send you a Consignment Agreement to sign that outlines our Terms
- We may require new Photos of your Artwork to post to our Website
- Our Consignment Fee is 12% on works priced $1,000 and above; a $150 flat fee for works priced at under $1,000. There is no cost if we don't sell your Art.
- You keep Artwork in your possession while we market it

STEP 5

What happens when we sell your artwork

- We walk you through preparing your Artwork for shipment (buyer pays costs).
- We receive payment from buyer and transfer you your share
